

Learning First Peoples Workshops for Teachers

English First Peoples Gr. 10-12 Teacher Resource Guide

January 29, 2018

Pinnacle Hotel Harbourfront
Vancouver, BC

Founded upon the First Peoples Principles of Learning, English First Peoples courses for Grades 10-12 offer students of all backgrounds the opportunity to explore First Peoples' worldviews through literature.

The courses were developed through the collaboration of First Nations educators with the BC Ministry of Education and it is notable that English First Peoples (EFP) 12 is fully equivalent to English 12 for BC post-secondary entrance requirements.

Originally published in 2008, the EFP Teacher Resource Guides have been revised to reflect the changing curriculum and incorporate recently-published First Peoples literature.

At this workshop, teachers will receive a draft copy of the new guide, discuss its use, participate in activities from the guide, and see our display of First Peoples literature resources.

Travel Reimbursement

Travel/hotel reimbursement is available only to teachers in BC First Nations schools, maximum two per school.

When you register online, you will receive an automatic email confirming your registration. This email is not a confirmation that you are eligible for travel reimbursement. If you do not receive a confirmation within a few moments of registering, please contact FNESC.

A travel claim form will be provided at the event and a sample is available on the events web page. It includes a summary of FNESC policies on the back.

You will only be reimbursed for “most economical” mode of travel.

Individuals eligible for travel reimbursement living more than one hour or 90 km from the event location can apply for one night of hotel reimbursed at the negotiated rate.

After the event, mail your travel claim to FNESC post-marked within 30 days of the event. You must include original receipts for hotel, ferry, airplane, taxi and parking.

Please do not claim breakfast or lunch on the meeting day, as they are provided.

Have a safe trip and thank you for your participation!
