

BLM 2 – Peer Feedback Form

Peer feedback should focus on the essay as a whole – what needs more work, what is missing. So, you will each be reading your essay aloud in order to focus on the structure of the essay and the points you are making. For each member of your group, complete one of these peer feedback forms.

Did the essay keep your attention all the way through?
Why or why not?

What is the writer trying to prove in the essay?

What evidence in the essay is strongest?
Why?

What evidence in the essay is weakest? Why?

Are there points that you disagree with? Explain why.

Is there any information
missing from the essay?

Is there evidence that you think could be added?