Manager, Early Learning

Join us to make a lasting impact!

The First Nations Education Steering Committee (FNESC) is an independent society led by a strong and diverse board of about 100 First Nations community representatives. FNESC is committed to improving education for all First Nations students in BC. FNESC works in partnership with the First Nations School Association (FNSEA), and the Indigenous Adult Higher Learning Association (IAHLA), as well as other partner organizations. We are currently searching for a Manager, Early Learning, who will lead FNESC's research, policy development, consultation with partners, and responses to evolving provincial and federal policies, programs, and legislation related to early learning and successful transitions of children into the K-12 education system.

Duties and Responsibilities

- Lead FNESC's responses to evolving provincial and federal policies, programs, and legislation related to early learning;
- Coordinate with First Nations leadership and other First Nations partner organizations to collaboratively develop consistent approaches and positions on First Nations Early Learning;
- Undertake research, policy and data analysis as required to inform ongoing discussions of First Nations Early Learning;
- Oversee the work of consultants and legal advisors, as required, to inform FNESC's advocacy for First Nations Early Learning;
- Facilitate consultations with representatives of First Nations and First Nations schools to inform FNESC's Early Learning activities and communicate updates about evolving policies and programs, as relevant;
- Represent FNESC on provincial and national external committees related to First Nations Early Learning.

We encourage you to apply if you want to join an organization that makes a difference and possess the following:

- Bachelor's Degree in relevant area (e.g. Early Childhood Education, Education, First Nations studies or a similar social science degree);
- Minimum of 3 years' experience working in the field of early learning;
- Experience with First Nations schools considered an asset;
- Understanding of early childhood curriculum, assessment, evaluation and reporting;
- Highly skilled and motivated professional who possesses specialized knowledge of the BC public school system;
- Proven ability to lead and manage staff to meet department objectives;
- Ability to synthesize information quickly to develop sound advice on a broad range of challenging issues.

This is a full-time position based out of the FNESC Office in West Vancouver, BC. The normal office hours are Monday to Friday from 8:30am to 4:30pm. Some weekend and evening work will be required, as will some travel throughout the province of BC.
