Languages Programs Coach

Join us to make a lasting impact!

The First Nations Education Steering Committee (FNESC) is currently looking for a dedicated, energetic and organized Languages Programs Coach to join our hard working team who work collaboratively and diligently to improve education for all First Nations students in BC. The Languages Programs Coach provides essential support to the Special Education department on diverse initiatives and projects, including working directly with First Nations communities, institutes, Boards, Committees, Partners and stakeholders.

Since 1992, FNESC, led by a strong and diverse board of over 125 First Nations community representatives, has worked in partnership with the First Nations School Association (FNSEA), and the Indigenous Adult Higher Learning Association (IAHLA). Communications, research, partnership-building, resource development and advocacy are all part of the work we do to advance issues in First Nations education.

Duties and Responsibilities:

- To provide direct support to First Nations schools with Language program planning and implementation;
- To assist schools in completing the First Nations Language and Culture Program (FNLCP) reporting;
- To present workshops in support of language revitalization to increase or enhance resources for languages and culture programming;
- To internally support the FNLCP team with tasks including the allocation process and development of workshops supporting schools;
- Travel regularly to participating schools to work with the First Nations schools' principals to support effective implementation of First Nations language programs.

We encourage you to apply if you want to join an organization that makes a difference and possess the following:

- A Degree in Education or a related field, with First Nations Language Certification preferred;
- Minimum of 5 years' experience supporting a First Nations school and/or community in language revitalization efforts and program planning for a First Nations;
- Valid driver's license and a satisfactory criminal records check;
- Knowledge of current standards, trends, issues, best practices, philosophy and techniques in First Nations language education;
- Comprehensive understanding of First Nations education issues in British Columbia;
- Demonstrated facilitation and presentation skills;
- Computer literacy (Word, PowerPoint, Excel, etc.)

Hours:

This is a full-time or part-time position depending on the requirements of the organization and/or the candidate's availability. Extensive frequent travel is required throughout the province of BC.

Location:

Regionally based within the province of BC.

What We Offer:

- The wage for this position is $47.00 per hour;
- Professional development and a health and wellness subsidy for all of our employees;
- Great deal of flexibility/ability to schedule your own hours;

- Opportunity to visit remote First Nations communities that you may not be able to visit otherwise;
- Opportunity to see beautiful British Columbia close up;
- Being part of a multi-disciplinary team made up of educational professionals, speech language pathologist, occupational therapists, assessment coaches, etc.

FNEC requires that all FNEC staff be fully vaccinated for COVID-19 for two reasons: First, because FNEC takes its responsibility to create and maintain a healthy workplace very seriously. And, second, because many of our staff attend First Nations communities in-person. Some First Nations have unique requirements and vulnerabilities related to communicable diseases like COVID-19, and FNEC always respects the needs of First Nations.

We thank everyone who applies for their interest in FNEC. Unfortunately, due to the volume of applications, we are only able to respond to those applicants who are selected for an interview. We cannot respond to telephone or email inquiries.

If what we have to offer fits what you're looking for, please send your resume and cover letter to jobs@fnesc.ca
